THE FOYER "During a party, it's important to set the scene by creating an exciting entrance," says designer Jenny Thomas, owner of J. Thomas Designs. She particularly likes the silver glamour of old Hollywood. Here, she incorporated fresh flowers atop a silver candelabra, a mint julep cup and silver candlesticks with tree toppers in place of candles. She also put a note asking guests to sign in and take a gift. "Personal touches set a party apart and show that you went that little extra mile," she says. See Resources
